

Day 3
Thursday 8 November

Time	Topic	Detail	Pre-reading, guidelines, exercises	Resource people
08:30-10:30	Current issues in the political economy of health.	Current issues in the political economy of health. 15 mins plenary on the political economy of health and overview of important and current debates. Participants are asked, before attending the course, to select one or two of the six readings listed in the resources page and come prepared to contribute to a discussion about that chapter, its relevance to the struggle for health in their country and on how PHM could work more effectively in that area. Six groups to be formed around the six PEH readings: the HFA promise, global economic integration, dumping, trade and food sovereignty, capitalism imperialism and class, the NIEO. We aim to have the topic discussions finished in the first session and then look towards group reports and general panel discussion in the second session. The purpose of this session is to introduce basic concepts in the political economy of health and to focus on strategies for engagement, in particular, through PHM.	Brief introductory presentation See PEH readings on Resources Page	David
10:30-11:00	Break
11:00-12:30	Political economy continued	Then moving to a more general panel discussion of the social and political determination of population health, reflecting on the presentations and discussions just concluded. Putting it all into the wider political economy context. Asking how PHM might contribute more effectively at local, national, regional and global levels.		Amit
12:30-1:30	Lunch
1:30-3:00	Tour of GK, further details to be provided
3:00-3:30
3:30-5:00
5:00-6:00	Free (and Program Committee)
6:00-7:30	Social event?
7:30-8:30	Dinner			